

Business Process Management Overview

In a 2015 study done by Gartner, it was discovered that 87% of Businesses miss their strategic goals. In other words, only 13% of businesses deliver on stated strategic targets for a given year.

Course Overview

This is a scary fact! The Business Process Management Overview training enables users to achieve the most value out of their business process management journey.

The Business Process Management Overview training helps users learn how to enable their organization to get the maximum value out of their business process repository, ultimately helping deliver their organizational strategic goals and drive their digitalization initiatives.

Course Outline

Learn how to create maximum value out of your business process management repository by communicating to stakeholders the importance of defining usage scenarios.

- Positioning Business Process Management
- Developing a Value-Driven Process Repository
- How to Define Repository Format
- Establishing Necessary Repository Content
- Creating and Applying Governance Methods
- Accessing Complete Tool Usability

For more information:
www.scheer-americas.com
info@scheer-group.com

Learning Outcomes

- Develop an understanding of the value of business process management in business process management initiatives.
- Develop an understanding of a business process repository, its capabilities, and the value of enabling a BPM team.
- Learn how usage scenarios of your process repository create value for the users and keep them engaged.
- Learn how format, content, and the tool itself can enhance your business process management capabilities to generate short term and long-term success.
- Develop process governance to ensure quality assurance

Audience

Anyone looking to learn more about how to generate and enable business process management through a process repository. There is no previous experience required, as this course fits anyone for any skill set.

Delivery type | eLearning